

In consequence of the many complaints received from our Clients through receiving Goods damaged in transit, often through being packed in dirty trucks, we have decided to give our Clients the opportunity to have all Chairs packed with straw bands at 1s. per dozen extra. These goods can then be sent at Company's risk and any damage which occurs in transit can be claimed from the Company, but unless so packed the Company will take no risk. When ordering Goods it must be distinctly stated if Chairs are to be packed and please note that if not packed W. & C. Ltd., will not take any responsibility of damage in transit. Any other Furniture that requires packing in a case will be charged at cost price and half cost allowed if case is returned free to Marlow Station.

This is a very comfortable and superior Chair, being specially designed for a new Church at Teddington, where they have given great satisfaction. The hat is placed on a stand between the Chairs (as shown) as objections are often raised against the hat being placed under the seat as interfering with the person kneeling. Space required for each sitting, 20 inches.

LYSS RECTORY, HANTS,
July 19th, 1892.
 DEAR SIRs,—Herewith I send you cheque for £116 10s. in settlement of your account. The Chairs which you have supplied for our New Church give entire satisfaction, whilst the mode of fixing them, with hinges at the back, I consider a distinct improvement on any I have seen. Your men did their work in a way which left nothing to be desired.—I am, yours faithfully, OLIVER S. WALFORD.

WEST & COLLIER, Ltd.,

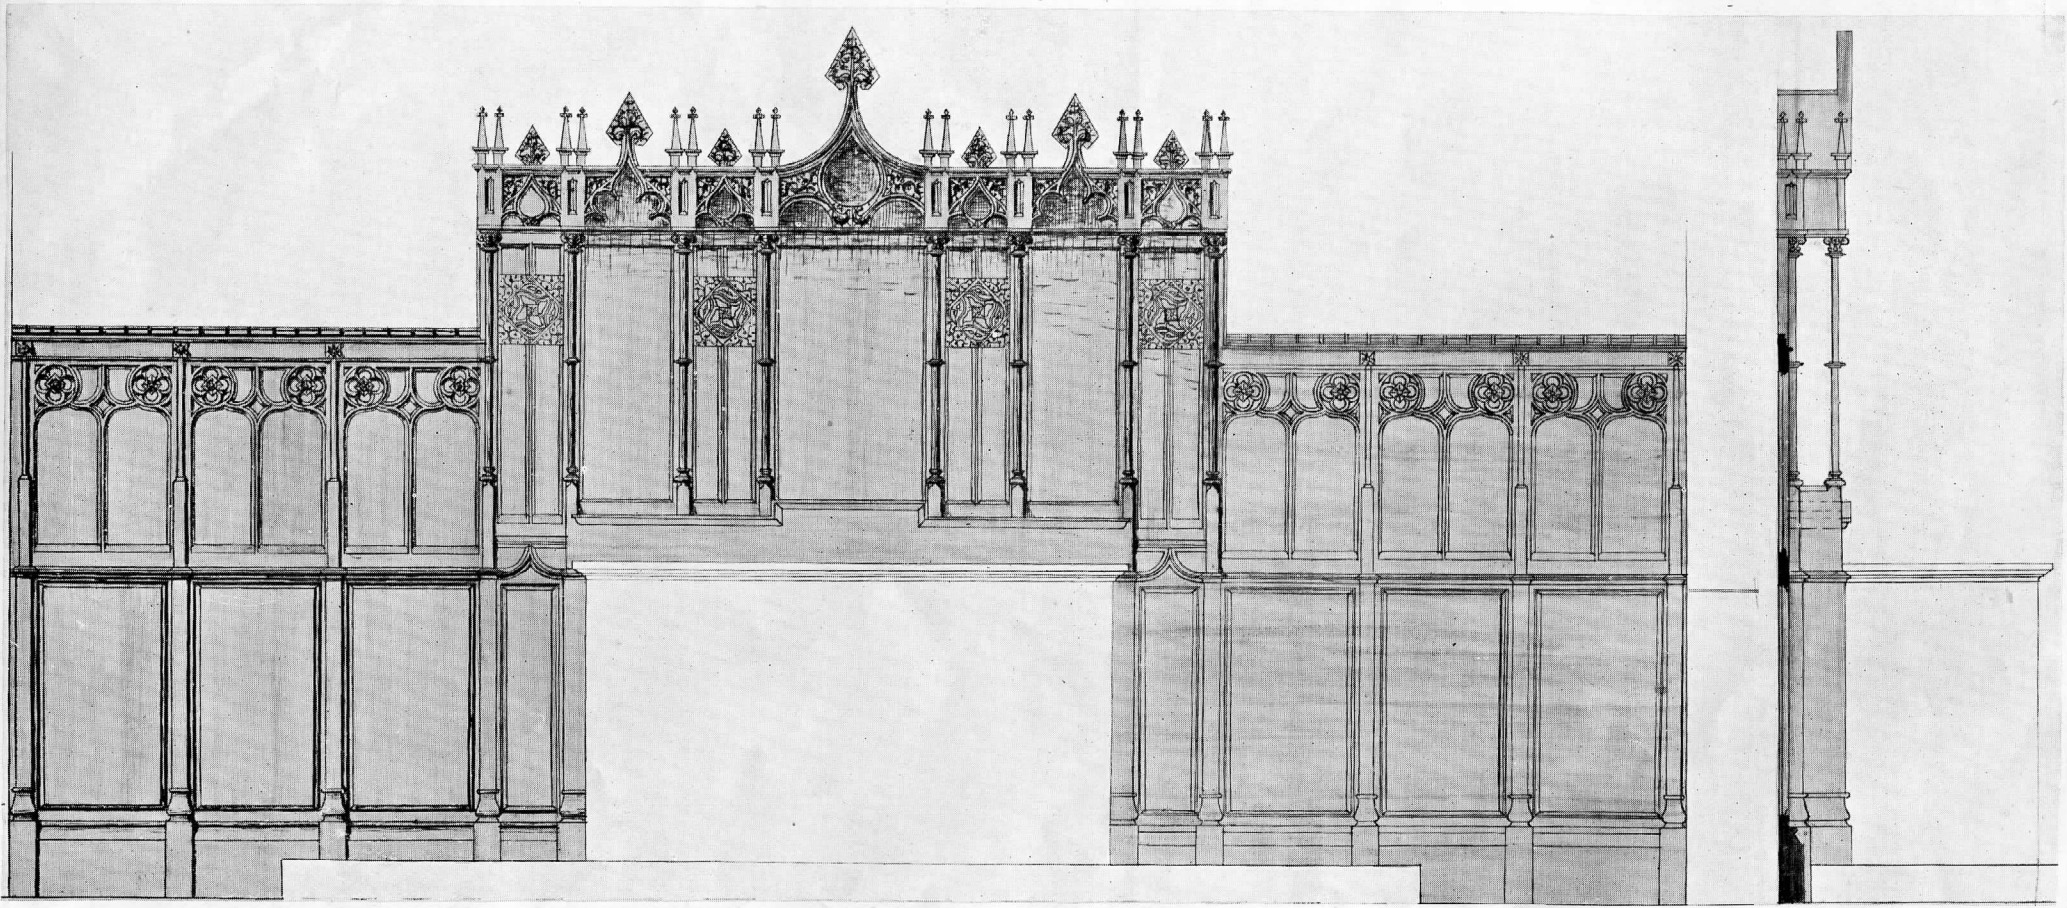

Church Furnishers,

S. MARY'S, SUMMERSTOWN,
 Tooting, S.W.,
Jan. 25th, 1894.
 DEAR SIRs,—I have the pleasure of sending you cheque value £59 11s. 9d. for Chairs, etc. The whole transaction (including our dealings with your workmen) has been most satisfactory. Your hinged fixing is, in our opinion, a valuable discovery.—Faithfully yours,
 Messrs. West & Collier. J. F. MORTON.

WEST & COLLIER, having long seen the necessity of fixing their Church Chairs together in rows, so that they are always in proper position, and showing perfect lines throughout the Church, have pleasure in showing the methods which they have adopted in many Churches with very great success. No. 1 plan shows the chairs fastened together in rows, and then hinged to the floor, so that the entire row can be turned back for sweeping and cleaning, thus greatly reducing the labour of caretaker. Plan No. 2 shows the chairs fastened together, but not fixed to the floor, so that the entire row can be moved at once.

We send our men any distance to fix the chairs, as this must be done by practical hands to make it a success, and shall be pleased to give estimates for fixing any quantity, and to refer clergy to Churches which have been seated and fixed by us.

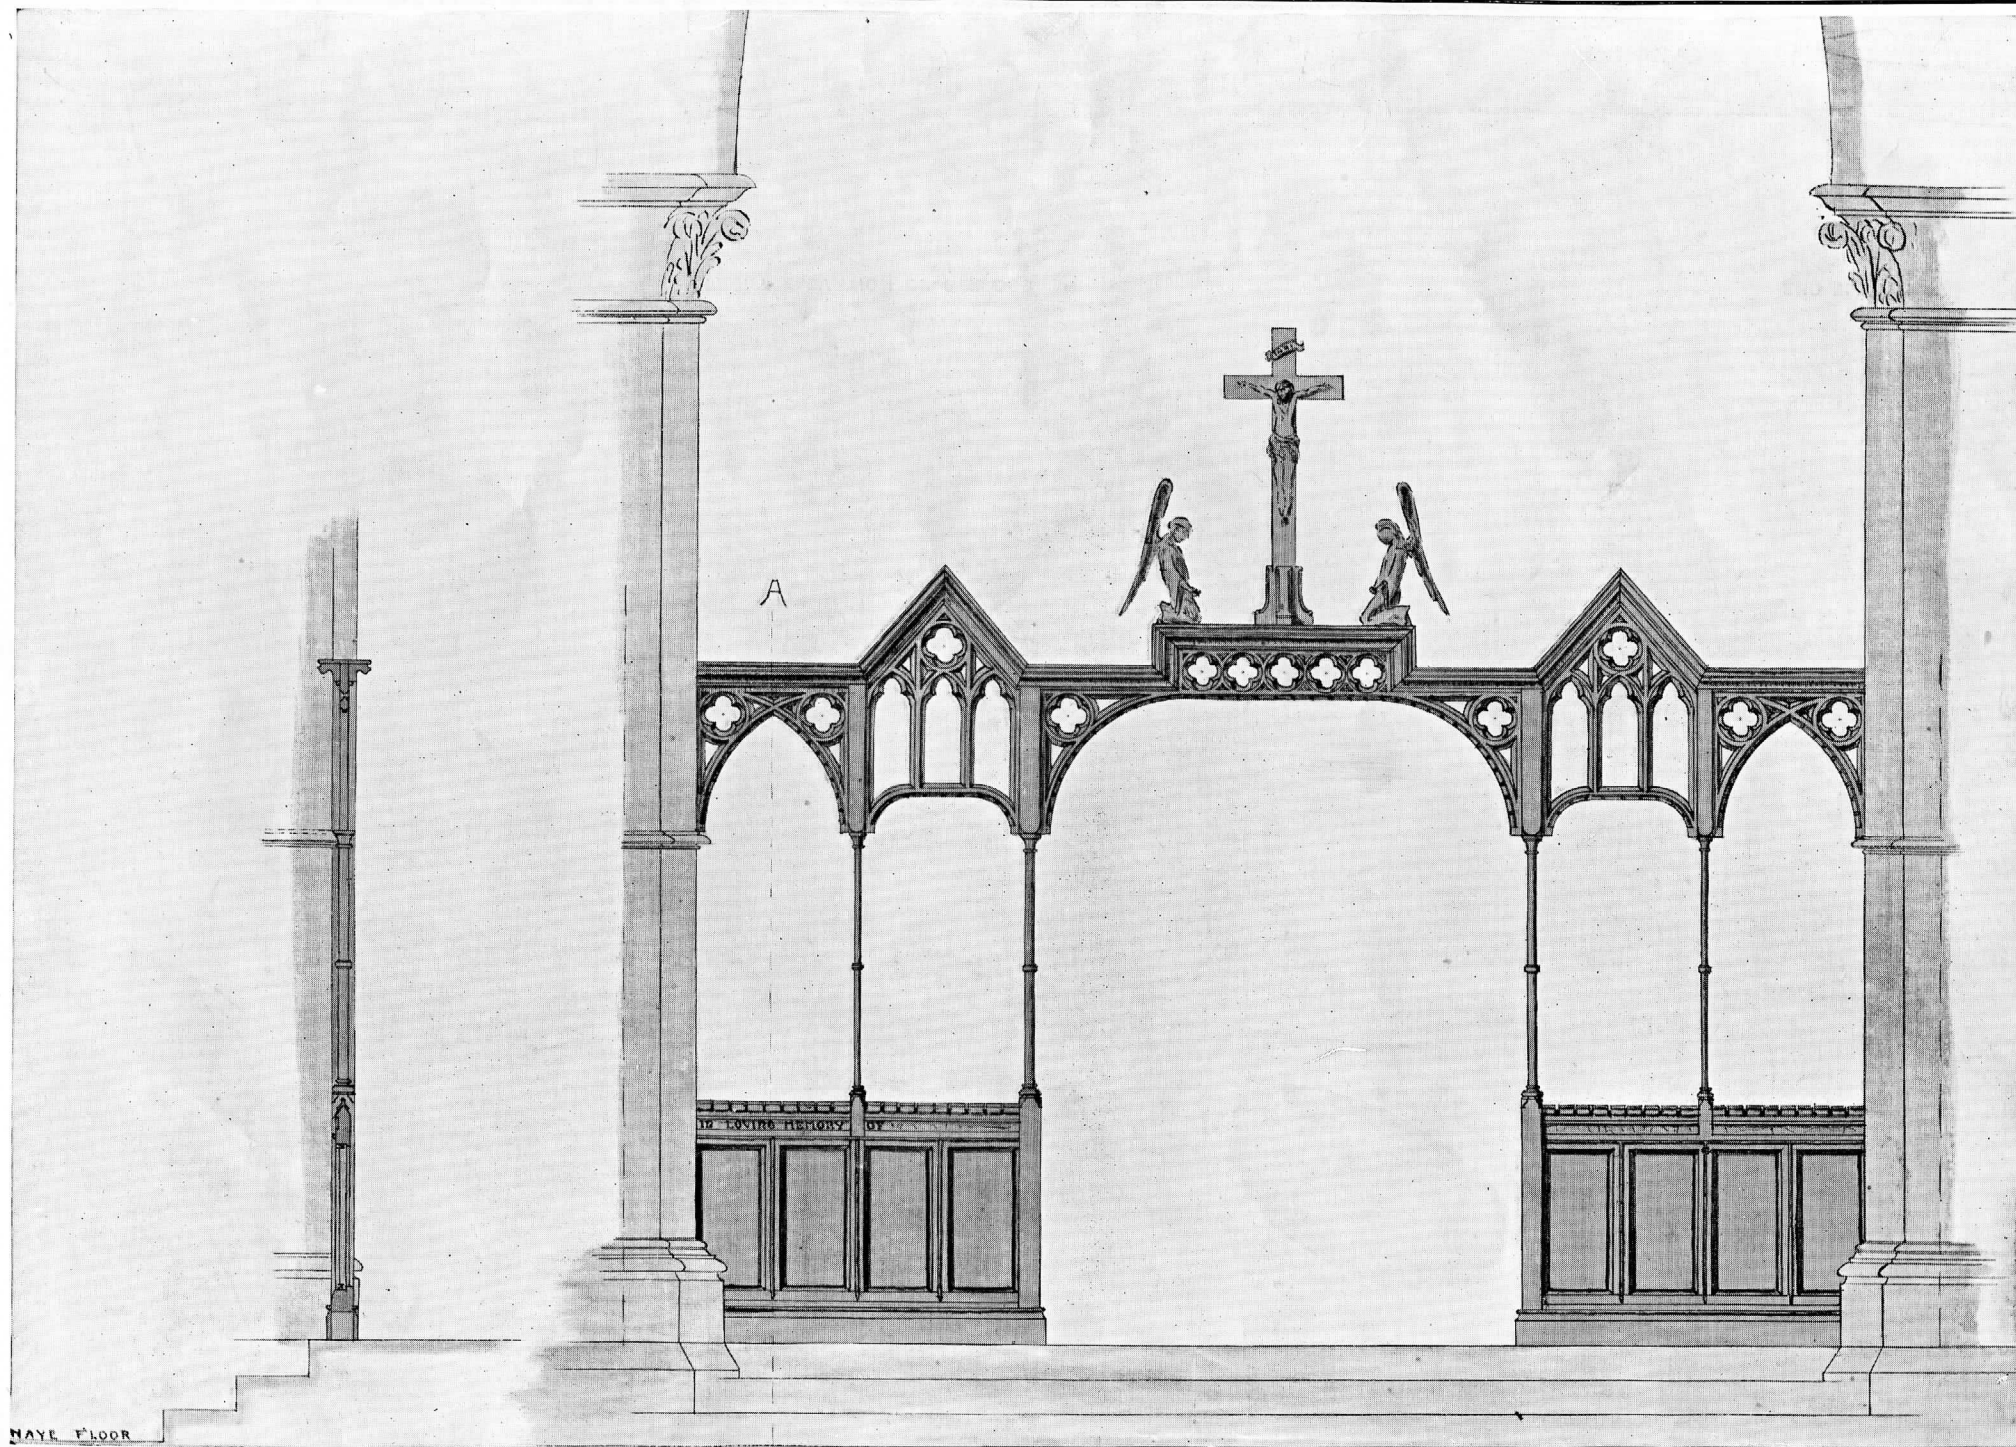

WEST & COLLIER, Ltd., Hambleden, Henley-on-Thames, Oxon.
